Saturday, August 7

8:00 am - In Thanksgiving to the Blessed Virgin Mary

Imagine seeing our Lord transfigured: consumed by dazzling colors, clothed in splendor, shining in brilliant glory, radiating light, and encircled by majestic songs of an exodus. As we celebrate the Transfiguration of Jesus, our Messiah, we are invited to ask what our world would look like transfigured, transformed by God's saving light.

Imagine it!

Envision a world where the colors of equality, the splendor of peace, the brilliance of truth, the light of hope, and the majestic songs of reconciliation are valued and esteemed.

Let's create it! Let's build it! Let's tell the story of a son, God's Son, who transfigured the world by handing over His life!

Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord Friday, August 6th
