

Jesus goes to Nazareth to announce His public ministry. His hometown, they all know Him. Yet, what would He say to them? They had been hearing about what He was doing - - preaching about the Kingdom of God, the healings, and the casting out of evil spirits.

Astounding the crowd, Jesus uses Isaiah's prophecy of the Messiah to describe Himself. He reads about being anointed by the spirit of God and sent to preach Good News, to liberate imprisoned people, and give sight to the blind.

The reading continues to define the work of the Church – preaching the Gospel, working for justice, and reaching out in compassion to all. The Holy Spirit is at work through us.

Reflection

Your mercy is always there, always available, always outlasting the interval between my first breath and my last. I know that your mercy will enfold my children, and my children's children, with a strength and finality I can never possess. And so I offer myself up entirely to your mercy; please let it carry my prayer for peace into every generation.

2022 Mass Intentions: Mass intentions are a beautiful way to remember a loved one or a Special Intention. Every Mass will be a Community Mass, offered for every intention requested; in this way every family will be considered. Mass intentions for 2022 may be scheduled at the Parish Office. An offering should be given at the time of scheduling. Thank you.

The annual campaign for the Rhode Island Catholic newspaper is taking place now, please call 401-272-1010 to subscribe. Our diocesan newspaper depends on faithful readers to continue its mission of bringing the good news of the Church to your home. Consider a subscription today!

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing faith. Your support provides lay leadership training, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

The Scalabrini Dukceovich Center, across the street from our Church, is offering FREE COVID-19 RAPID TESTING every Monday afternoon from 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm and COVID-19 vaccinations from 4:00 pm – 7:00 pm.

There is no cost and no insurance or appointment is necessary. Testing is open to all ages.

Please wear a face-mask to be tested for the health and safety of everyone participating.
