

Gospel Reflection

We too, like Jesus, are called to lift our eyes and voices to our heavenly Father in prayer. Prayer is an essential element of the Christian journey. It is our nourishment, our food for the soul. Prayer affords us the opportunity to intimately pursue, seek, and know the ways of God. Living Easter faith requires that we approach our saving God in prayer, offering blessing and adoration, lifting up our petitions, interceding for others, giving thanks, proclaiming praise, and asking forgiveness. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy, Alleluia!
