O glorious Saint Joseph, guardian of Mary and Jesus, assist and protect from all harm the families of our parish and all those throughout the world who turn to you for divine guidance.

Delicious homemade items and beautiful Easter Baskets will be available. Please plan to attend!

Lenten Reflection

"Once again Jesus is turning our expectations on their heads. He says that his glory will be fully apparent when he is lifted up on the cross. This can only be understood if we know the Father, the great I AM, as the one who offers us his Son on the cross as the great sign of his love for us. Jesus will not be alone on the cross because the Father is there; likewise we are never alone."
