THANKSGIVING DAY MASS – Everyone is welcome on Thanksgiving morning, Thursday, November 23rd at 9:00 am. We invite all families of the parish to make every effort to attend as we offer thanks to God for the many blessings and graces we receive. Bring to this Mass the bread and wine for your Thanksgiving meal, to be blessed at the Mass and shared with family and friends in your home.

Next Sunday, November 19th is traditionally the commemoration of the feast of Our Lady of Divine Providence. It is most fitting that during this year dedicated to “Mary our Mother” that this commemoration of our Diocesan Patronal Feast be given a proper observance. The Bishop has granted permission to celebrate the Mass of Our Lady of Divine Providence in place of the Mass for the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our parish will also join in this celebration for our Blessed Mother.

MASS BOOK FOR 2018 – The Mass Book for next year will be available for the scheduling of Masses beginning Wednesday, November 22nd during office hours: Monday to Friday, 10:00 am to 5:00 pm. We do not automatically reserve Masses from year to year. We ask for your consideration of all families when requesting weekend Masses. Mass intentions should be paid upon scheduling. Thank you for your kindness and consideration.

Proper Reverence at Communion Time – When receiving Holy Communion, all communicants are asked to make a bow of the head as a sign of reverence just before receiving the Body of Christ: Our Bishops request that this simple bow of the head will be the proper reverence before receiving Holy Communion.

Next weekend, November 18 & 19, the second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Over 46 million people in the U.S. live in poverty. This collection supports programs to empower people to address the obstacles they face as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. Please be generous. Thank you.
