

Reflection

"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the Kingdom of God."
Mark 10:25

The Gospel of St. Mark presents us with a realistic Jesus. Jesus promises that although we may have to give up many good things to be a holy disciple and inherit the Kingdom of God, we will be given many rewards. According to Jesus, living and observing the Commandments is not enough; we must also give everything we have to the poor. Following Jesus, our Messiah, requires that we rid ourselves of the trappings that keep us from the love of God.

What possessions are controlling your life?
What can you give up?
