

Gospel Reflection

Love of God and love of neighbor are two constants, the two beams of light illuminating the path for us on our journey. The two commandments Jesus identifies as the greatest. God commands the Chosen People to act fairly and compassionately to their neighbor and warns them of the consequences if they do not. The Thessalonians, whom St. Paul calls "a model for all the believers" gave witness to the Gospel by their charitable lifestyle. We were all once aliens ourselves - in a new city, work place, or social setting. Our world has changed dramatically since we were born. But, we are not alone; God hears our cries. It has been said that the art of giving and receiving love is at the heart of growing old gracefully. Let us pray for the grace to treat our neighbor as ourselves.

Who needs your love most at this time?

The following was printed as a Letter to the Editor in the Rhode Island Catholic, our Diocesan Newspaper:

*I wear a mask,
Not on orders from above.
I wear my mask
Because it's you I love.*

*I care for your health
So it won't be automatic
For you to catch COVID from me,
If I'm asymptomatic.*

*We're created with a dignity
That no one can measure.
Each and every life
Should be one that we treasure.*

*We'll beat this thing back,
I am fully aware.
We'll beat this thing back,
Only if we care.*

*Let's work together,
If need be from six-feet apart.
With masks, with patience,
with mercy,
Let us share a generous heart.*
