

Gospel Scripture Reflection

Doing "yes" trumps saying "yes!"

Words without action are empty.

After all, we are called to do the Lord's work.

Today's scripture is as straight forward as can be:

Turning away from virtue brings death.

Turning away from wickedness brings life.

We find this theme of actions having consequences.

Jesus is our model for self-emptying for the sake of others. By both His birth and dying on the Cross, Christ gave Himself up for the life of the world.

For this reason we are called to have that same mind and attitude that was in Christ; humbling ourselves, and looking out for the interests of others.

The best course is to bring "saying yes" and "doing yes" together.

Today we can choose to join the work in the Vineyard of the Lord.

The Holy Guardian Angels

October 2nd

He has given the angels charge over you to guard you in all your ways. Let them thank the Lord for His mercy: for His wonderful works. Let them give thanks and say the Lord has done great things for them. O, Lord, you sent Your only Son and the grace of your Spirit, to serve us, assigning the angels as our guardians and teachers. - Saint Bernard
